To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Mary Ann since September 2007 when she came to work as the administrator of Children Cope with Divorce. This is a non-profit organization that provides weekly court-mandated seminars for divorcing parents.

In her capacity to insure the seminar's effectiveness, she scheduled them, worked closely with (10) presenters, and managed the finances.

Mary Ann's computer skills, her ability to work well with others, and her excellent organizational skills are exemplary. She is highly professional, and takes great pride in doing her best.

Mary Ann has been a pleasure to work with. She is precise and dependable. I recommend her without reservation to serve in any capacity, where she could utilize her impeccable skills.

Sincerely,
